Claims 19-23 and 25 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 6/13/06.

The applicant will note that many of the non-elected claims have been considered because the independent claims have been found allowable. At the same time, Claim 19 has been withdrawn from consideration because it, and the claims dependent thereon, do not read on the elected species.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 24 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Nissan (JP('526)).

In particular, the applicant's attention is directed to the Abstract of the reference as well as Drawing 8. It should be noted that this claim does not require the injector be mounted in the intake manifold and the location of Nissan's injector will allow for a direct conductive path to the injector, since the injector is not identified as being conductively insulated.

Claims 1-18 are allowed.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
